ROLPH ALWAYS REPRIEVES MEN DOOMED TO HANG

Governor Grants as Many as Eight Delays to Murderers Condemned to Noose

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 28—(UP)—No other governor in California's history has had such a tendency to defer until the last possible moment the execution of a doomed murderer as Governor Rolph.

Since his inauguration, the governor has granted no less than 85 reprieves to killers who were awaiting the noose at San Quentin or Folsom prison.

Moreover, it is the governor's proud boast he has never permitted the execution of any slayer without granting at least one reprieve.

The charge is freely made by some responsible sources that the governor's penchant for granting extensions is mental torture to slayers—particularly when the condemned man has no chance of commutation.

There have been reports of how a doomed man would build himself up mentally for the execution. He would have steeled his courage for the ordeal. Then along comes a reprieve and he collapses. Successive reprieves, some claim, leave the prisoner a nervous wreck.

Such contentions exasperate the governor. He contends a reprieve is a humane act and is so regarded by prisoners.

Two killers received eight reprieves. They were Peter Farrington, hanged and Harry Fulled Goold, finally committed to an insane asylum. W. H. Burkhart received seven extensions before he was executed; so did Frank Paciga and Pedro Magsaysay.

Ernest Dias and Tresco Lecanz were exceptions. The former paid for his crime with his life after two reprieves while Lecanz was executed after only one extension.

The most celebrated case in the Rolph administration is that of J. D. Green. He has received five extensions so far and perhaps will get more before the governor finally decides for good and all whether the young theatre robber shall hang for the murder of a Los Angeles policeman.

Nine men have been hanged, so far, during the Rolph administration; sentence of four condemned prisoners has been commuted to life imprisonment; one was sent to the insane asylum and there are still pending many others who seek commutation or whose cases are on appeal.

EVIDENCE TOO FLIMSY· TWO CASES DISMISSED

H. Henkel, of Graniteville, charged with hunting without a license, and Aldi Casci of this city, accused of hunting deer without deer tags, were hailed into Judge W. L. Mobley's court Tuesday by Game Warden Charles Sibeck.

For lack of evidence, the cases against both men were dismissed. Warden Sibeck, considerably irritated at the dismissal, remarked after court had adjourned that he would never bring any more of his cases into this court. Judge Mobley warned him to be sure not to do so unless better evidence for convictions were forthcoming than the two cases he had dismissed.

Henkel testified that he was enroute to Nevada City when the car broke down and his companion went back to the sawmill, where both men were employed, to get a spare part. Sibeck appeared, searched the car, found a gun and placed him under arrest. Sibeck testified that Henkel's clothes were wet and inferred he had been off the highway among the damp brush. Judge Mobley found this evidence insufficient.

In the case of Casci, who was with a hunting party, and did have a license, but no deer tags, it was proved that he had tended camp and took no part in the hunting with his companions. The court ruled evidence against him was too flimsy.

Attorney Harry McKee had as week end guests, his son, Harry McGee Jr., and wife of San Francisco, Misses White and Hoffman, Grass Valley teachers, also spent Sunday at the McKee home.

FLOWER SUNDAY WILL BE OBSERVED AT TRINITY

The Episcopal church on Nevada street in Nevada City, is holding its annual Flower Sunday, next Sunday, October first.

Invitations were sent out to the C. C. C. camps asking the boys to attend and the Rev. Charles Washburn stated that four of the different camps were to send delegations.

A fine program of solos and special music by singers and musicians of Grass Valley and Nevada City will add to the special choir music.

The choir will wear leis of autumn flowers around their necks and the church will be artistically decorated with masses of blossoms and flowers.

LAVA CAP MAKES FAST PROGRESS

The Lava Cap mine, which comprises the Central and the Banner mines, has closed down for a few days in order that many changes and additions of machinery and equipment can be made.

At the Central shaft a 70 foot headframe is being built and a 200 ton capacity ore bin is being constructed.

The company is also erecting a new hoist with two ton skips.

Active work is to be resumed at this property in a week and within ten days plans are to start sinking to the 1050 foot level.

Workmen are busy erecting a 30 horse power electric hoist at the Banner shaft and building 45 foot headframe.

The Banner shaft has been retimbered to the 123 foot water level and two 300 gallon, 600 foot head-pumps have been ordered to be installed in this shaft. Otto Schiffner is superintendent.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY IS HELD AT HIGH SCHOOL

A general assembly was held at the Nevada City high school Wednesday morning. In order to avoid confusion at these meetings students were seated in alphabetical order and are to retain the same seats at assemblies hereafter. The rule of two to every seat held true, except for the portly students who were each assigned a single seat.

Principal H. E. Kjorlie announced that students whose last period fell to the study hall, would be permitted to go home instead of occupying that hour in the hall, provided they immediately left the school ground. In this way confusion and disturbance during the eighth (last period) for those who remain in classes, will be eliminated.

Mr. Kjorlie also suggested that those students who went home for lunch take more time at it. as some parents had complained that their children did not have time enough to eat properly. As a rule the complaints came from parents whose children arrived at school long before the afternoon session began at 1:15 p. m.

THREE LION CUBS TAKEN NEAR CAMPTONVILLE

CAMPTONVILLE, Sept. 29—Chas. leadshaw, State Lion Hunter, who has been working in this section for the past few days, bagged three prize cub lions Tuesday in the Mill Creek section, seven miles northwest of town. The young lions had been in the country for some time, and Leadshaw, on their trail met up with them with his dogs. One of the dogs killed one, treeing the other two, he shot one in the tree, and climbed up a nearby tree and put a rope around the other's neck, capturing him alive. This makes six lions he has to his credit for this month, and he's off again in this vicinity on the trail of another.

STOCKTON HILL MINE READY TO DEVELOPE

The Stockton Hill mine below Grass Valley has erected a hoist, installed a compressor and is ready to install a Diesel engine, and a small mill as soon as developments warrant it. Four men are now employed at the property.

CAMP TRANQUILITY IS FAR TOO POPULAR

Attorney Harry McKee has a nice camp in the woods up on the Tahoe-Ukiah highway and has built himself such a cosy little place that it is a delight to all who visit him. Mr. McKee there spends all the time he can spare from his office in this city.

As there is a wide view both to the north over the vast mountain ranges and to the south over Nevada City and ranges to the south, Mr. McKee decided to call this beautiful spot "Camp Tranquility." He has placed a neat sign on the road entrance to his property.

A few days after the sign was up a motorist drove into the "camp" and inquired of Mr. McKee if he had any "hot dogs for sale." The attorney's astonishment was reflected in his answer: "Hot dogs? Why no," he replied. Later others inquired for houses to rent, camp privileges, etc, until Mr. McKee has decided to call his place "Casa Tranquility" or some other name of less misleading character.

IDAHO MARYLAND HAS 300 AT WORK

Unwatering of the New Brunswick shaft of the Idaho-Maryland Mines Company ,Ltd., started Wednesday. Through connecting levels the old and new Brunswick shafts will be unwatered at the same time. The new shaft is down 1350 feet while the old one is about 1200 feet deep on an inclined shaft.

Robert Hathaway, well known Grass Valley millwright, placed his men at work this week on the surface structures at the Brunswick properties.

The Brunswick will be put in operation by Manager Errol Mac Boyle of the Idaho-Maryland Mines, Ltd., as fast as equipment can be set up.

The company now has 300 men employed at the properties located in the Hills Flat area east of Grass Valley.

NRS SUPERVISOR ORGANIZES WORK IN NEV. COUNTY

R. H. Towns, supervisor of the National Reemployment Service for the eighteen northern California counties, was a visitor in Nevada City Wednesday. The National Reemployment service supervises all those projects in which any part of the $3,300,000,000 appropriated under the National Recovery Act, is spent, in so far as the employment of labor is concerned.

For Nevada county $230,000 has been allotted. Under the set-up of the NRS, in each county an NRS manager is appointed who registers all available men or women out of work, and helps to obtain employment for them on all projects to which Federal funds have been allocated. He will have citizen volunteer committees named to aid him, and in the larger communities assistants who will register those who desire employment. This is for those who live in the communities and not for transient laborers.

Each contractor is pledged to employ only local residents on his project, save a few experts in his general organization.

Announcement of the citizen committees and the county manager appointed will be made within a few days.

The NRS seeks to serve both employers and job seekers and is, in one of its aspects, a free employment service.

The headquarters of Mr. Towns is in Chico. It is proposed to inaugurate this program by October first.

Mrs. E. Lawty sold her house and lot on Orchard street in Nevada City to Mr. and Mrs. White of Fallon, Nevada. Mrs. Lawty has resided here nearly two years and has made many friends who will miss her. She is returning to Oregon to reside. Mr. and Mrs. White have three children and Nevada City welcomes them as new residents.

SCOUT COUNCIL DISCUSSES PLAN FOR SCOUT HOME

The Nevada City Boy Scout committee, meeting at the Chamber of Commerce Monday evening, with the chairman, Horace Curnow, presiding, heard the report of Harris Ricksecker, scout executive for the Tahoe regional scout district, and learned that Nevada City's quota this year will be $260 plus 10 per cent of its deficit. This ten per cent has been assessed to all communities that are in arrears.

Good news contained in the report was that the area council owns outright Pahatsi Scout Camp, that there is no indebtedness against the property and only a small lumber bill to be paid there. The Regional Council thus far has contributed little or nothing toward the construction or maintainance of the camp, practically everything there having been donated by public spirited citizens.

The question of housing for the local troop was discussed. Many suggestions were offered regarding the problem, which many feel, must be solved before scouting in this city can be placed on a firm basis. If a suitable site can be obtained, it was believed that a large log cabin, might not only fill the need for economical construction, but meet with the enthusiastic support of the boys as being a structure most suitable to their needs.

Several suggestions were made by Otto Schiffner regarding log construction, and President Curnow placed him on the housing committee of which Judge Tuttle is chairman.

Regarding raising Nevada City's quota for the scouts, since the executive intimated that matters should be pressed to an early conclusion, it was suggested that those who did not contribute to the fund raised a few monhs ago, be asked to subscribe in the immediate future.

Dr. C. W. Chapman urged all committees to take an active interest in their particular functions, so that the president would not be left to function for them all.

Scoutmaster Parsons reported that meetings had begun this month, but that attendance was far below that of last year. He stated that there were a number of boys who had not been able to join because they had not the small initiation fee. Judge Tuttle suggested that a list of these boys be made and that the members of the committee make an effort to provide them with odd jobs to earn the necessary money.

MR. AND MRS. FARMER BUILDING NEW HOME

The pouring of concrete started this week for the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Farmer located south east of Nevada City near the William H. Goede home. An excavation has been made for an immense basement and when the house is completed it will be one of the most modern in this district.

O. A. BETTCHER FINISHES HOME ON DEER CREEK

O. A. Bettcher, who purchased several acres of land near the county hospital, has just completed a neat little house on the property.

This ground extends back to Deer Creek and is rocky and hard to cultivate, but Mr. Bettcher plans to erect a number of neat little cottages over the property and rent them. He has reconstructed a large red storehouse into a dwelling and resides there with his family.

HIGHLY MINERALIZED ORE ON KOHLER CLAIMS

William G. Kohler, who owns five claims southwest of Grass Valley, yesterday sent several specimens of highly mineralized ore to the Nugget office, which are so extraordinary in their mineralization that they are exhibited in the Nugget window. He reports that he has a number of veins on his claims which show this high mineralization.

County Recorder Sam J. Clark has returned from a vacation.

COLLEGE BOYS' PLACER MINE EARNS A LIVING

The depression touched all sorts of people. Not long ago our attention was called to two typical, black, happy go lucky, Mississippi darkies, who have been making a bare living by sniping for gold on the South Yuba river.

On Wednesday of this week Rushton Shaw, and his mother came to Nevada City from the Jones Bar on the South Yuba river. Young Shaw and his brother, Richard, both college graduates of Kansas City, Missouri, and Will Wood of Spanway, Washington state, have used a gas engine in their placer operations all this season on the river, making about $1.00 to $1.50 a day and sometimes more. Young Shaw sold about $20 of gold dust to Don Carlos Billick, the result of several days hard work. He stated he thought many of those large boulders had been turned over four or five times in the river around Jones Bar.

Mrs. J. G. Shaw arrived two weeks ago and was greatly surprised to see the crude methods and hard work involved in securing the gold.

The group are thankful to Mrs. G. Downey of Nevada City for the use of a comfortable cabin and good stove.

CHAMPION MINE TAILINGS LEASED

R. E. Anderson, brother-in-law of Arthur B. Foote of Grass Valley, and partner, Mr. Shaw, have come up from Marysville and taken a lease on the old Champion mine tailings.

A keystone drill was used in testing out the large deposits of tailings from the old mine in order to get an estimate of values.

A small crew of men have been busy in recent weeks in building bunk houses and are now clearing brush and debris for active operations in the near future.

Messrs. Anderson and Shaw will install a drag line to operate in a pond in which will be a dredger. A belt will carry the sand and gravel to the dredger.

CASH COOK LEASES NORTH STAR TAILINGS

Cash Cook, former mining superintendent of the Con. Copper of Ely, Nevada, and partner, have taken over all the mine tailings of the North Star-Empire group and the McDonald ranch in the Grass Valley district.

A small crew of men are installing a flotation plant, sluice and pump to handle the immense pile of tailings.

Mr. Cook expects to start operations about the first of October.

LOG CABIN LAD WALKS 100 YARDS, BAGS BUCK

CAMPTONVILLE, Sept. 28—Although some of the local hunters travel many miles to get a deer, it is not necessary to leave home; this was proven a few days ago when Woodrow Wilson, of the Log Cabin, local high school lad, told his dad he was going out to bag a deer, and walked perhaps a hundred yards above their house, and brought down a nice two pointer with less ceremony and time than it takes to tell about it.

UKIAH TAHOE HIWAY CONTRACT IS AWARDED

Another step toward the completion of the Tahoe-Ukiah highway from Lake county to the connection with the Victory highway near Emigrant Gap was taken with the award of a $122,408 contract Tuesday to A. Teichert and Son, Inc., of Sacramento for the surfacing of 7.4 miles in Nevada county between Summit and the Washington Ridge.

It has taken a number of years to complete this splendid highway and it has heavy usage at present, but traffic particularly from the east

Paul Stevenson, who worked with a big construction company on the N. I. D. ditch from Scotts Flat toward Grass Valley four years ago, is visiting his friend John Langley of Nevada City.

POPULATION NOW 6,390,788- STATE DEPT. ESTIMATES

Thousands of Mexicans Leave But Thousands of Easterners Arrive

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 28—(UP)—California now has a population of 6,390,788 persons, according to an estimate made by the state department of public health.

This total represents an increase of 658,650 over the official population of 5,732,138 credited to California in 1930 by the United States census.

"Conditions pertaining to migration to California have not been disturbed greatly during the past few years," the department report stated. "The economic status of individuals traveling to California may have changed, but it is doubtful that the numbers of individuals who have journeyed to this state from other states have changed materially.

"To be sure many thousands of Mexicans have left California for their native land during the past few years, but this exodus has been more than offset by arrivals from other states and other countries. The Civilian Conservation Corps camps alone have brought 80,00 men to California during the past few months.

"The birth rate is slightly lower. Last year there were but 109 more deaths in the state than occurred in the preceding year, and births in 1932 were 3,445 fewer than in 1931."

The report pointed out that while it is recognized that accurate population estimates are difficult to make under present conditions, a consideration of all factors involved proves the estimate to be "fairly reliable as an indication of the number of persons who are living at the present time in California.

THE PEOPLE FIRST

For a long time we have observed the working of the game laws, the constant tightening of restrictions for the protection of game and fish, and in general the kind of tsardom the Fish and Game commission exercises through its wardens.

We have decided that in many of its aspects the effect of the game laws and the manner in which the game commission enforces them closely approximates a tyrany over all the people all the time.

We refer particularly to the new nuisance law, which presumes that a man with a fishing pole or a gun in his hand or in his car is fishing or hunting. We are glad to note that a local justice of the peace dismissed as too flimsy the evidence produced by one of these game sletuhs against a citizen who was found carrying a rifle in his car, and charged with hunting without a license.

Hunting deer with all the interminable red tape attached now has become a kind of royal ceremonial. Tags to be attached to the antlers and tags to be mailed. A license setting for the personal appearance of the lincee. Every yard of this red tape costs a lot of money.

The fact that deer have increased to such an extent that they are often a menace on the highways and frequently a pest to the farmer, cuts no ice with the game commission.

The forest have again become the king's private preserve. Poaching is growing as the laws against hunting and fishing become more onerous ,and the tax to hunt or fish is increased.

Long live the king, but who is he? He's the chap, nine times in ten, that lives in a big city, has money to burn, and wants the fish and game kept for his particular sport and pleasure. To perdition with the man who lives in the mountains and kills to eat.

We are ready enough to grant that the fish and game laws have done a splendid thing for California, in preserving wild life and making a little of it of available each year to a great number of sportsmen. But we do most earnestly believe that it is time to call a halt on further grant to powers of the commission, high time that hunting and fishing license fees be reduced, the activities of snooping wardens curtailed, and the poor folk, who really need to kill to eat, given more latitude.

Down near Stockton three years ago a game warden shot a sixteen year old boy in the neck, who had killed a cottontail rabit and was trying to escape. The boy lived but it was not fault of the warden.

SOCIAL EVENTS

The Child and The Movies

The moving picture show is at the present time one of the most vital influences in the life of the American child.

Never a week passes, that the children of each and we may say almost every American home go to at least one moving picture, where for better or for worse they observe with the eye all the various phases of life from the idealistic to the crude and immoral.

As we all know, anything seen by the eye makes a most lasting and vivid impression, consequently the question arises, should the parent censure the picture the child is proposing to visit or should he let him have unlimited liberty in the matter, in consequence of which he may have forced on his immature mind impressions which may make for his downfall, rather than his betterment.

There is no doubt in the adult mind, that murder and crime of all sorts and descriptions depicted on the screen, if not understood by the child, works to his detriment, for he is apt to make a hero of the criminal and to place wrong values on criminal action. An older and wiser head viewing the picture at the same time and explaining the true meaning of the action and the reason for the same would save the day.

On the other hand, if pictures of travel, wild animal life, the growth of flowers, artistic dancing, wholesome homelife and romance are to be shown, they can but reveal to the child, the ideal in life and in nature, thus arousing in his inner consciousness elements for good and forcing on him through the eye never to be forgotten ideals.

It would seem then that the only way to be sure that your child and mine is enjoying the best, would be to see that pipcture first ourselves and if we consider ourselves competent judges, to pass upon the production as to its fitness for the immature mind.

Much of the crime among very young people has been traced to wrong conceptions of life drawn from the moving picture shows.

SHOPPING GOSSIP

What a perfectly gorgeous morning. Let's go for a walk down Grass Valley's Mill and Main street's and take in some of the store windows. Let's take a peek at the Golden Rule window, isn't it a delight to the eyes? Look at these caps for boys in gay colors and guns to go wit hthem. What a great variety of things for all. Such values in soaps, overalls, and soxs for men at the most reduced prices. Aren't these new prints for aprons marvelous? Warm sweaters for Ladies and Misses, hats and caps. These are great values in pocketbooks too and in the prevailing colors for the season. All are so neatly trimmed and would easily pass for expensive purses, when in reality they cost the buyer only 69 cents and $1.49

Baby clothes are always lovely, but they are not always as reasonable in price, as are these. Here is the dearest set of wooley pink things for the baby, boote's, cap and jacket at the low price of $2.49 and such cute embroidered dresses at only 25 cents. It surely would pay a person to shop around here for there are wonderful buys.

Oh, I want to go in here, Where? Why, my dear, the Phoenix Drug Store. They have the most complete line of drugs, perfumes, ppwders and toiletries and besides one can always find the latest magazines or the most desired sweets. For myself, I want a bottle of that lovely Yardley perfume, I believe the name is Orchis, some of this Jasmine powder. Isn't a drug store delightfully clean and sweet? Here is a free weighing machine. I am going to weigh myself.

Here is Elizabeths Dress Shop. Hasn't she some lovely new dresses? Woolens and Brocaded silks and all in the most delightful styles. The colors too are most attractive. Browns, blues and blacks all made so decidedly chic that one but sees them to desire them. They say she is a marvelous dressmaker and very reasonable.

I just love to look in the windows of Maurice the Photographer, don't you? He has quality photography. Did you ever notice how realistic his portraits are and his work on the large photographs is unexcelled? He will be a busy man now that Christmas time is not far away. Be sure to tell your family of his excellent workmanship.

It's getting near noon now, so I think we better drop in to the Jack O'Lantern Cafe and have one of their delicious sanwiches and some chili. They do have excellent coffee too, which I say has a moreish taste. Everything is so clean and neat here that one enjoys every bite.

If you don't mind we will run over to Francis Botfields in the Commercial Building. She does Dressmaking and is wonderful at repair work. I have my sweater over there being mended now.

Bert's Dry Goods Store certainly has a lovely window. I like that black satin dress with the lovely lace top, and do look at these darling things for the baby. Vanta twin wash clothes and a real vanity for the baby containing babies own soap, Olive oil and babies own sterilized powder. Aren't these little pink robes darling? The tiny crocheted bootee's look like they might belong to a doll. They carry a complete line of baby clothes. In fact, one can find many beautiful and inexpensive things in this store and I have always been well pleased with all my buys.

Before we start for home, I want to drop in to the Jones Drug Store and get some Honey Du for my cold. That is something new for coughs and it just reaches the spot. Besides I always take their Norgegian Cod Liver Oil this time of year, it tones one up for the winter. Just notice these Hubigants perfumes they are most delightful, but this new compact with the two bottles of perfume by Renaund is quite the niftiest thing I have seen in that line. The perfume will not spill when turned upside down when open but when touched to the body it gives down a drop of exquisite fragrance. Everything in this store is so complete and satisfactory and reasonable in price I know you will want to bring your friends in to see the various lines.

The latest fad in Paris is jewelry, watches, bracelets, pins and what not that milady adorns herself with, —all on native gold. Just a peep in Hartung's windows with their metropolitan air and changing beauty of choice flowers and gems. That fad naturally takes like wild fire in places where the natural gold is mined from Mother Earth and Hartung's is ready to meet the demand. A peep in their windows is more than an eyeful. It's a temptation, to which many women, busied now with all the new things in fall wearing apparel, shoes, hats and other wearable, very readily succumb.

And just a few doors beyond is the Vogue Dress Shoppe, with a tempting array of the gowns, coats, jacquettes, and all the bonny bright things autumn brings to bless the world, where every woman must—that's the word—pause and view the lovely prospect. There is more than a touch of modernism about the Vogue Dress Shoppe. It is modern in every respect, and one of the pleasantest stores in the Twin Cities in which to shop. A lot of girls and their mothers have discovered that.

Now we best be on our way home as I wish to stop in to the Golden Rule Barber Shop and see what the latest Bargain is. The lady in charge does wonderful work on childrens hair.

Well, we are almost home. Here is the Hughes Auto Court. They have an excellent grocery store and carry everything a car needs for perfect lubrication. It certainly ought to be the stopping place for cars being on the highway, as it is.

Here we are at last, and I feel that we have spent a pleasing and profitable afternoon don't you? Let's go again next week.

COLD STORAGE TURKEY SUPPLIES RUN SHORT

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 29—(UP)—The "turkey trot" to cold-storage plants up to September 1 this year apparently was reduced to dreamy waltz tempo.

Reports to the federal-state crop reporting service showed less than half as much of the holiday "piece-de-resistance" on ice as was held in the plants a year ago. On September 1, 1932, turkeys in cold storage totaled 835,000 pounds as against 402,000 pounds for the same date this year.

The average holdings for that date during the five preceding years amounted to 615,000 pounds.

Mrs. Ed Smith of Park Avenue was quite ill Sunday and her daughter and son, Mrs. Minnie Hall of Folsom, and Orrin Smith of Sacramento, came up to be with her.

SAFECRACKER CRACKS OPEN SAFE FOR NOTHING

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 29—(UP)—Somewhere in Sacramento there's a burglar whose face must be exceedingly red.

Evidence indicated the safecracker had labored long and strenously to knock the combination off a safe in a downtown business house. Then he discovered the strong box had been unlocked all the time.

And, if that wasn't shock enough—the safe was empty.

Mrs. Ed Moomey is in a Sacramento hospital recovering from a serious operation, which was performed last week by Dr. June Harris. She is president of the local Parent Teachers Association and her many Nevada City friends hope for her an early recovery.

IS THERE ENOUGH

LIGHT in your home?

YOU can make a distinct change in the appearance and comfortable livableness of your home by giving a little attention to lighting. Usually that is all that is needed, attention and thought given to proper lighting in the same measure as thought and attention is given to color schemes, furniture selection and arrangement. Proper lighting is not costly to attain if it is carefully planned for comfortable and convenient use.

Study the illustration above. It shows a common fault with lighting that may be noticed in many homes, and perhaps your home. Here is a lamp placed beside a corner of a davenport because the furniture arrangement placed a table there. The result is a limited spread of light. Proper lighting would make the entire davenport a comfortable and pleasant place in which to read or work without squinting or eyestrain.

Poor light induces eyestrain and may cause permanent harm to vision. It is also responsible for headaches, weariness, depressed feeling and nervousness.

And it costs so little to light up for cheerfulness, for comfort, for adding to the attractiveness of your home. Lamps and electricity are lower in price today than ever before. They are so inexpensive that every home should have all the light needed for comfort, health and safety.

STATE BOARD CITES LAW TO BAN SALOONS

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 28—Seeking to protect prospective liquor dealers from heavy financial losses, due to misunderstanding of the state's new regulatory liquor act, the State Board of Equalization, which is charged with the responsibility of liquor regulation, today issued a warning that the initiative act adopted by the people last November absolutely prohibits saloons, bars or any other public drinking places in California.

Fred E. Stewart, Member of the Equalization Board, issued the following statement:

"It has come to the attention of the Board that many individuals and corporations are preparing to build and equip saloons and other public drinking places, apparently under the misconception that such places will be legalized with repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment.

LIQUOR REGULATION ACT

"To clear up confusion and avert unnecessary financial losses on the part of prospective liquor dealers, the Board calls attention to the fact that with the repeal of federal prohibiion California's new State Liquor Regulation Act becomes effective. This act, which the people adopted on November 8, 1932, by a vote of 1,308,428 to 730,522, specifically prohibits public saloons, bars or drinking placces where intoxicating liquors are kept, sold or consumed and the Board of Equalization, in conformity with the law, will take summary action against any liquor dealer violating these or any other provisions of the regulatory act."

Stewart also warned prospective dealers to beware of racketeers, seeking to collect fees on the claim that political influence will be necessary to secure liquor licenses under the act.

LICENSE CONDITIONS

"Any responsible person, firm or corporation, of good moral character and willing to comply with the exact provisions of the law as well as the regulatory rules of the Board, is entitled to a license for the off-sale of hard liquors," Stewart declared.. "But hard liquors cannot be sold for consumption on the premises under any circumstances.

LIGHT LIQUORS

Outlining the law with regard to the sale of "light liquors," Stewart declared that Assembly Bill 1528, enacted by the 1933 Legislature, requires that each person or corporation supplying wine or beer to patrons for consumption on the premises must conduct a regularly established restaurant or eating place.

"Beer and wine, under this act, cannot be served except with meals," said Stewart, "and the firm or individual engaged in their sale for consumption on the premises cannot engage in the sale of any other alcoholic beverages. This applies to hotels, restaurants, boarding houses and all other public eating places.

ORIGINAL PACKAGES ONLY

"No limitation is placed on the number of licenses which may be issued by the Board for the off-sale of hard liquor. Such liquors, however, must be sold in original packages from retail stores and cannot be consumed on the premises.

"The Board is empowered to establish such rules and regulations as will preclude evasions of this provision.

NO CAR LICENSE UNTIL COUNTY TAXIS PAID

RIVERSIDE, Sept. 28—Beginning March, 5, next year, millions of hitherto hidden dollars will begin to flow into the coffers of the county and city treasuries of California, paid by more than two million automobile owners as part of their personal property taxes.

The white slip will indicate on its face the county in which all persons registering vehicles reside.

"The Department of Motor Vehicles is prepared and well able to cope with and take care of this matter immediately following the effcive date of this bill, March 5th, 1934, which is the first Monday of March, as prescribed in Section 8 of Senate Bill No. 178." Bevans announced.

What statewide branch banking means to Californians

1. It provides the same type of metropolitan banking facilities for the smallest communities of the state as it does for the largest.

2. Funds from a great reservoir of capital are quickly diverted to any section of California that requires special seasonal financing.

3. Stability of statewide industry and agriculture is enhanced by this quick movement of needed capital.

4. By keeping its resources in 243 cities instead of having to confine them to any one section, exceptional protection is afforded depositors. It is obvious that economic set-backs in any single locality could have but little effect upon the entire state.

5. Therefore, your money deposited with Bank of America is protected by assets based on the diversified industries of one of the world's richest empires—California.

6. Your money in a Bank of America savings or commercial account is actually helping to finance, not just a single community, but the vital industries of all California—agriculture, horticulture, lumber, livestock, manufacturing, oil, fisheries, shipping, wholesale and retail business, and home building.

VANDEGRIFT HURT, DEMANDS ROAD SAFETY

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 28—(UP)—Painful personal experience has impelled Rolland A. Vandegrift, director of finance, to strongly recommend appointment of a "safety" engineer whose primary job would be to spot dangerous highway curves and recommend their realignment.

Vandegrift was severely injured in an automobile crash on a "death" curve in Ventura county.

'Three persons were killed at this curve before my accident," Vandegrift said, as he painfully moved his injured arm. "Two more have died at the same spot since."

"It is time something be done by the highway department to remove these death traps.

BENNETTS & STEEL SHOW LATEST STYLES FOR MEN

Clothes for the ladies have taken a decided change in their general contoeur. Puffed sleeves, jutting points, fur trim and lapels have a tendency to broaden the shoulders and give the appearance of the narrow hipline.

Materials vary from the roughest hair cloth, twills and tweeds to smoothest satins and broadcloth's. The waistline remains decidely in its natural place, whereas here-to-fore it has extended below or above the natural line.

The prevailing color is brown, bnt for those who cannot wear brown there are beautiful and chic designs in navy blue, black and red.

Men's fashions too are following very much the same in materials and colors as those for the women. Navy blue, brown and black are the most used colors in hats. Slouch hats and Stetsons are in as good taste as ever, while caps have a great variety of colors to suit the younger generation.

Ties do not follow the flaming colors of the past year or so. Instead, they are of a tweed design in more of the pastel shades.

Taken all around fashions are quite as attractive, new in designs and pleasing to all tastes, as in the year past and also at as reasonable prices.

Freeman Woodman is quite ill at his home on Park Avenue. His many friends hope for him an early recovery.

LUMBER TALKS

MAKE 'EM YOURSELF

Would you like some lengths of lumber
Just for one thing or another—
Say a writing desk for sister,
Or some bright new shelves for mother?
You, yourself can do the work,
Come on daddy, please don't shirk.

Would you like to build a bookcase,
Where the boy may keep his books,
So they won't be always lying,
In some quite disordered nooks.
Pay a friend to do the work,
Help another; come don't shirk.

Does the sidewalk need improving,
Is the roof without a flaw?
Will it stand the storms of winter,
Snow, and then perchance a thaw?
Hurry daddy, get to work,
Winter's coming, please don't shirk.
